and there is slightly more disposition to extend operations further into the future. Most advices indicate a larger volume of trade than a year ago, while some industrial centres report more machinery active, with a reduction in the number of unemployed. Labor troubles exert a retarding influence in a few sections, but disturbances of a serious nature are absent. Lower temon distribution of merchandise at retail, and fall season appears to be opening up fairly well. There is soliditary of many staples in dry goods, and though the demand has subsided, the higher price level is fully maintained. Jobbers are doing a steady business, and the recent large purchases will keep the mills flusily engaged for two or three months to come. Less conservatism is manifest in the market

Both retail and jobbing trade in footwear is moderately active, but, while shoe factories keep quite well occupied on old contracts, new business is still slow to develop. In contrast to the quieter conditions and easier tendency prevailing in finished steel lines, plg iron reflects increased steel lines, pig iron reflects increased firmness, with heavy sales of Southern iron a feature. Inquiries for foundry grades for 1914 are more numerous, although consumers appear somewhat reluctant to pay the advances asked for next year's deliveries.

Railway returns for the first week of September show an increase in gross revenue of 1.0 per cent. as compared revenue of 1.0 per cent, as compared with a year ago, and of 4.6 per cent over 1911. However, bank clearings this week were 1.0 per cent smaller than last year, although being 7.3 per cent in excess of 1911.
